Description

This is one of a set of four all of which I am listing on selling antiques. They are absolutely stunning and the hand painting is exquisite. Each plate has been hand gilded. Decoration is of exceptional quality. These plates are in the region of 204 years old. They have been treasured and show incredibly little signs of wear. They are conservation and restoration free. Totally genuine pieces. Bloor backstamp is the puce transfer, finger applied period 1820-1830. 9 inches in diameter. These plates are significant pieces. Rarely found in this honest, origin all condition.
