Description

Another reunited Baluch rug sold over 30 years ago and nice to have it back. It has a beautiful madder-red ground with an overall small lozenge pattern, disappearing under the borders and out into infinity. The main border has a relatively typical Baluch continuous vine leaf symbolising the eternal cycle of life. A very elegant and nicely-drawn rug, made circa 1880 in Khorassan province of north-eastern Persia. Size: 2.00m x 1.20m (6' 6" x 4' 0").
