Description

A nice example of a small tabletop chest of drawers dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. There is a nice arrangement of three small drawers over a flight of eight drawers with an additional drawer in the side. It is made of a mixture of mahogany and stained pine and the drawers have small brass knobs. It would have likely originally been used in a workshop to contain small parts or screws. Now it would make a lovely specimen / collectors chest or even a jewellery box or stationery cabinet. It is in good condition for its age and has a lovely patina. The drawers are generally clean and tidy inside. There are signs of age and use, some minor surface marks and knocks, small chips and splits but no major damages. There are some minor signs of historic worm which has all been treated as a precaution and overall the piece displays well. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK Delivery £15
