Description

A lovely small mahogany tilt-top wine table dating from the early 19th Century. It has a rectangular top set on a turned support with tripod splayed legs. The top is made from one solid piece of mahogany and it has a nice patina and mellow colour. It is in good condition for its age and displays well. It is strong and sturdy and the top is generally stable and level. There are of course signs of age and use, some minor marks and old stains on the top and some minor knocks and marks around the legs but no major damages. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
