Description

A lovely pair of Bedside cabinets from around the turn of the last century. These arts and crafts designed cupboards in Ash are in very tidy condition and the tops in Carrera marble are also really clean. The cabinet furniture is original and all in place. We have cleaned these in our workshops and they are now ready for a new adventure in their lives, hopefully being around for another couple of centuries. They are well made, as one might expect with this amount of detail in the design and the excellent quality of the brassware. Give us a call if you would like to discuss. Delivery can be arranged at cost to most areas.
