Description

A substantial Victorian Painted Pine Cupboard. This piece was originally used as a maintenance cupboard at the Willesden Green Underground Station. C.1890. The original Maroon colour paint remains beneath a layer of White chippy paint and it has original signwriting under the compartments. The doors have graffiti on the inside referring to the LNWR and the stops. In a good solid condition, this piece will certainly add colour and charm wherever it is placed and provide good storage space. Width 103.5 cm Depth 42.5 cm Height 175 cm
