Description

This Late Medieval Bronze Signet Ring is a unique artifact that evokes the spirit of adventure and pilgrimage of its era. Its oval face is beautifully framed by a petaled border, creating an elegant outline for the central engraving. The design features stylised waves above and below a central meridian line, suggesting a symbolic representation of a journey across waters or a significant pilgrimage. This ring not only served as a personal emblem but also as a testament to the journeys—both physical and spiritual—that were central to the late medieval period's exploratory and devout nature. A part of our medieval jewellery collection. A certificate of authenticity will be supplied with this ring. SIZE UK L / US 5 ½ ITEM DETAILS Face dimensions. 14 x 17mm Weight. 7.6 grams Bronze ERA 15th – 16th Century CONDITION The Late Medieval Bronze Signet Ring is in very good condition, showing remarkable preservation for its age. The bronze material has maintained its structural integrity, and the ring's detailed design, including the petaled border and the intricate waves, remains clearly visible. There are a few abrasions and signs of minor wear on the ring's surface, w...
