Description

A good quality French display box dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. It is made from panels of bevelled glass in a gilt frame and it stands on ornate bracket feet. It has a hinged carrying handle and the front door is hinged with a small catch. The back of the casket is lined in a light blue cushioned velvet with a small gilt hook to display a pocket watch or a precious piece of jewellery. It is in good original condition and displays well. There are signs of age and use, a small chip to one corner of the glass and some general light marks and knocks but no major damages or anything detrimental. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK Delivery £10
