Description

Georgian Chest of Drawers later painted 'Distressed Icy Scandi Blue' finish English Georgian Period Later Painted using Specialist Mottled 'Distressed Icy Scandi Blue' finish 2 drawers over 3 drawers in configuration Dovetailed and cockbeaded drawers Original Wooden Bun knob handles Original shaped apron and bracket feet Stands very well H: 104cm (40.9") W: 107cm (42.1") D: 53cm (20.9") CONDITION REPORT This chest of drawers has all its original components and wooden bun knob handles. It has been later painted in a colour that was used in Georgian times – probably called Robin's Egg Blue at that time – we have mixed it to our traditional recipe and applied it by hand in the traditional manner and given it a slightly more contemporary name as so any of our clients refer to this colour as 'Icy Scandi Blue'. Given its age and usage, this chest of drawers is in very good condition. It has been thoroughly inspected and checked in our workshops. Any signs of woodworm are historical and no longer active, having been treated as a precaution. Marks, scratches, and dents around the sides, front, and back add to its charm without affecting the item's overall integrity....
