

SA1084357

French 18th Century Hand Blown Glass Cornichon Pickling/Truffle Jar

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1084357*Date of manufacture: 1750

Description

French 18th Century Hand Blown Glass Cornichon Pickling/Truffle Jar France Circa 1750 - 1780 Hand Blown Glass Rare and highly sought after Sculptural cornichon or truffle pickling glass jars Interesting history and collector's items 8 in total of various sizes H: 32cm (12.6") Di: 14cm (5.5") - represents the largest size PRICE IS FOR EACH INDIVIDUAL JAR French 18th Century hand blown Glass Cornichon Pickling/Truffle Jars are truly captivating and these are no exception. These handblown bocals(1) (or "jars") exhibit a delightful assortment of shades of green glass, each varying in size and coloration due to their one-of-a-kind nature. Rare and highly sought-after, what may be mistaken as imperfections, such as tilted mouths, bubbles, and ripples in the glass - are actually the very attributes that make these jars cherished antiques. These antique French truffle jars not only evoke history but also bring a touch of elegance to any space. Originally, these vessels served practical purposes: storing vegetables, fruits, truffles, and other food sundries. However, today, they find new life as wonderful vases that can be placed throughout the home, adding a pop of colour...

Internal Ref: HB094

Seller Details

Whites Antiques

Unit 10 The Vinery Arundel Road Poling West Sussex BN18 9PY
United Kingdom

Tel: 07717 321455

International Tel: +44 7717 321455

