Description

This charming small pine wardrobe, dating from around 1910, features two doors adorned with beautiful vertical columns on either side, a full-width drawer at the bottom with brass drop handles, and rests on sturdy bun feet. It also has decorative finials atop each corner, which can be removed if desired. Inside, at the top, it retains its original 'swinging hanging pegs' (see photos for more details). Please note: This wardrobe does not disassemble for delivery, so please carefully check access, especially for staircases or tight corners. Additionally, with an internal depth of just 16.5 inches, this piece is relatively shallow, making it best suited for hanging smaller garments. If preferred, we can remove the old pegs and install a hanging rail, or perhaps fit two rails from front to back to better accommodate larger clothing. Please contact us for more information. The wardrobe is in good, solid condition and currently in bare wood. It is available for purchase as is for £750, or waxed for £827. Height: 76" (with finials), 70.5" (without) Width: 45" Depth: 22.5" Internal depth: 16.5"

Internal Ref: D1805D
