Description

A lovely oak cabinet dating from the early 20th Century. It has attractive carved panels on the front doors and it comes with its original working key. It opens up to reveal pipe racks inside each door, two small storage drawers and a full set of Imari style ceramic bowls and lidded pot. There is a small engraved brass plaque on the top "Presented to Mr H Hawley By a few Aberdeen Friends. 24.3.02". It is in good condition for its age and it has a lovely warm patina. There are a few small knocks and marks around the outside and general signs of age and use but nothing detrimental or untoward. The ceramic pots are in good condition with no major damages. It has been cleaned and lightly polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
