Description

A stunning and top quality large Victorian burr walnut tilt top centre or dining table. The shaped oval top having wonderful book matched burr walnut veneers with a thumb moulded edge. The superb base supported on a quatrefoil pierced column with central turned finial and floral carved detailing and raised on 4 beautifully carved cabriole legs with scroll feet and brass and porcelain casters. In fine condition and ready for use. The table will seat 6 persons with comfort. There is some evidence of historical woodworm to the under side this has been treated and is long gone and does not effect the structural and function of this stunning table.
