Description

This is an antique desk elbow chair. An English, oak office seat, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. Appealing elbow chair, ideal for the drawing room or home office. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout. Select oak presents fine grain interest and wisps of medullary rays. Rich caramel hues dance across the serpentine form of the armchair. Superb figuring accentuates the upper rail, above a classic lyre back rest. Arch shaped arms enclose the seat squab, with forward orientated supports. Finished with a later, mid-century faux leather cushion and adorned with press stud trim. Raised upon elongated cabriole legs, splayed at the rear, and being further united with an H-stretcher. This is a fine antique desk elbow chair, with beautiful colour and an attractive oak frame. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
