Description

A superb, large and bold Mid Victorian games/sewing table of the finest quality. The legs, uprights and stretchers are solid walnut and are very well carved and turned. The pull out wool box has it's original paper lining and the drawer above has it's working lock and key. The shapely top has mainly boxwood inlays of a floral design set into beautiful burr walnut which runs through to the drawer and wool box below. The top swivels and folds open to reveal a stunning inlaid chess/draughts/cribbage and backgammon surface which is almost as new.
