Description

An excellent pair of Art Deco cufflinks by the famous Danish Silversmith, Georg Jensen. Presented in a fitted box, these handsome examples are of Sterling Silver and date to the mid 20th Century. The design number of 64 is attributed to Henry Pilstrup, who worked in Jensen's workshop from 1909. In 1937 he designed cufflinks no. 64, along with shirt studs of the same design. The cufflinks are of wonderful quality as one would expect from the Jensen name, making for a fantastic gift or addition to a collection. Dimensions below.
