Description

We are delighted to offer this substantial antique solid 9ct gold albert chain, all hallmarked and assayed in Birmingham, c.1910. The chain features a wonderful rosy 9ct gold tone and has a soft antique feel to it. The chain features two lobster clasps and one t-bar on the end. Whilst this chain could be used in various purposes such as for a watch chain or as a chatelaine, owing to its length and design, it can also be used as a necklace/choker and has a stunning antique look upon wearing. Each link is intricately hallmarked and is a delightful example of English hallmarked on gold articles. A beautiful multi-purpose chain and a wonderful way of holding some physical gold whilst being able to enjoy wearing a beautiful antique. Size & Total Weight 41cm 29.9g /0.096 troy oz Condition: great antique condition with no issues/damage, only surface wear commensurate with age - please kindly refer to the photographs for further details. We aim to overemphasize and state these issues (if any) to avoid disappointment and thus please rest assured they are not significant nor affect the usage of the items. Please refer to the photos for further details. *Please note: all...
