Description

A charming Late Regency or William IV silhouette profile of a lady. The silhouette is a paper cut out that has been highlighted and given detail with gold paint. The work is in good condition and mounted in what looks to be the original frame. The frame is in bird's eye maple with a great colour and original patina. A fine quality example of this period silhouette with great decorative appeal. C.1830. Overall sizes in inches including frame: 6 by 7
