Description

A wonderfully shaped large copper Georgian two-gallon jug. The shape is big bellied with a wide open top and small sparrow beak lip. The measure is marked as two gallons on the side. The condition is very good for the age with some odd minor marks, and a small hole and dent to the handle. The manufacture is nice and early with a lovely seamed edge running the length of the jug. The whole is a great example of this type of measure of impressive size and wonderful shape. C.1800. Overall sizes in inches: 15 wide 9 ½ deep 12 ¾ high
