Description

This small pine chest of drawers, most likely from the late Victorian or early Edwardian period, features a traditional design with two smaller drawers above two full-width drawers, the bottom drawer being slightly taller. Each drawer is fitted with wooden knobs and the piece rests on bun feet at the front. The top is adorned with a decoratively shaped gallery surround along the sides and back. The chest is currently in bare wood and in good condition for its age, with all drawers sliding smoothly. It is available for purchase as it is for £400 or waxed for £467.
