Description

Here we have a truly stunning English boulle work desk top stationery set by J C Vickery and made for Aspreys of London, consisting of a standish with original fitted inkwells and depressed pen tray, a large scale desk blotter pad with dark green leather interior and carrying the name of Asprey of London and a slant top box, probably for stamps complete with anchor points on the side for either a paper knife or pen and again stamped for Asprey of London. All pieces are in immaculate condition and the fine detailing of the brass work is of superior quality to it's French counterparts, this set would grace any desk. Free postage and packaging is included in the price of this item.
