Description

A superb Napoleon III Ormolu Mounted Empire Revival Flame Mahogany Partners Pedestal Desk, Circa 1870 in date. This imposing Empire Revival partners desk is mounted with fine ormolu neo-classical mounts including rosettes, palmettes, escutcheons, ribbons and anthemion, on finely figured flame mahogany. The rectangular breakfront top has round corners and has an inset gilt-tooled green leather writing surface. There is a decorative ormolu mounted column to each corner and the desk is raised on a plinth base with block feet. It is a partners desk so it is freestanding and on one side there are three frieze drawers with three further drawers in each pedestal, the other side has two frieze drawers above a panel door in each pedestal. The doors each with superb decorative ormolu mounts open to a cupboard with a central shelf. The desk comes complete with the original working locks and keys. This desk will soon become the centrepiece of your furniture collection, there is no mistaking the sophisticated quality and design and it is certain to enhance the style and elegance of any living area, bedroom or reception.
