Description

This is a magnificent monumental pair of antique oil on canvas Continental School still-life paintings, each initialled by the artist A M, in stunning gilt and gesso frames, dating from the late 19th century. This splendid pair feature beautiful bouquets of flowers. This iconic style of still life was originally made popular by the Dutch old masters in the 17th century when many of the flowers depicted were considered highly exotic and precious. They are housed in their magnificent gilt gesso frames which are decorated with superb foliate decoration. Add these splendid antique paintings to a very special wall in your home.
