Description

Herbert Thomas Dicksee was a British painter born in 1862. He was best known for his sensitive depictions of animals including dogs, lions and tigers. Dicksee's family was well-ingrained into the art world; his father was an artist and his nephew, Sir Frank Dicksee, was the president of the Royal Academy in London from 1924–1928. Herbert went on to study at the Slade School of Art in London on a scholarship, and his first painting was exhibited in 1881. Many of Dicksee's most famous works were transcribed into prints and etchings published by Klackner of London. He died on February 20, 1942 in Hampstead, England. "A Scottish Deerhound" is an original drypoint etching measuring 6" x 9". It is signed lower left in pencil and is framed giving an overall size of 16"x 18". Original label on the back of this lovely little Dicksee. Free delivery mainland UK, please call Paul 07885 108190 for further information.
