Description

A Georgian Cuban mahogany side table from around 1780, featuring exquisite boxwood and hardwood marquetry inlay. The table has a rectangular top and three drawers: a large central drawer flanked by two smaller ones, each adorned with intricate inlay work. The drawers have elegant brass handles that complement the warm tones of the mahogany. The table stands on slender, tapered legs, also decorated with marquetry, enhancing its refined and delicate appearance. This piece exemplifies fine craftsmanship and adds a touch of historical elegance to any interior.
