Description

A William IV overmantle mirror with an elegant and ornate design. The mirror is divided into three bevelled edge panels and framed with gilded elements. The top section features intricate gold floral scrollwork set against a black background, with a central rosette adding a decorative focal point. The frame is supported by fluted columns on each side, also gilded, enhancing its classical and refined appearance. This overmantle mirror combines functionality with luxurious decorative details, making it a striking addition to any mantel or wall, reflecting the grandeur of the William IV period.
