Description

A untouched and original George II period, mahogany drop-leaf dining table, Circa 1740. Featuring a solid, high quality, very well figured, mahogany top of oval (almost round) form. Constructed from 3 leaves of early, heavy mahogany. The end leaves are supported by single gatelegs. Plain frieze, raised on turned tapering legs on off-set well proportioned pad feet. A excellent early original table, in very good condition. Sensitive cleaned, waxed and now very much ready for use. Dimensions: This table measures approximately 72 cm (28.5") tall, 107 cm (42") wide leaves up, and 39.25 cm (15.5") wide leaves down, 107 cm (40.25") deep. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This table is in very good original condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally very sound and sturdy. Original and unmolested, other than a perished screw replaced and joints reglued. Never French polished. Only marks and blemishes in keeping with use, now all well wax polished over. Lovely aged colour. Excellent attractive aged patina throughout. Lovely original surface, never been refinished. A little historic extinct old worm holes to the secondary ...
