Description

This is a wonderful GEORGIAN Mahogany Chest of Drawers with a Serpentine front, which is superb quality. It is rare to find such a stunning piece which is in lovely original condition with its original gilt brass handles, and original key holes which is a super feature. The top has a nice shaped reeded molding to the edge. Below this there are four lovely graduated Serpentine fronted drawers. There is cock beading to the edge of the drawers which sets them off nicely and each of the drawers having pretty gilt brass ring handles which are beautifully detailed. The drawers have lovely fine dovetail joints as can be seen from the close up photographs. The drawers are flanked by lovely reeded detailing. The mahogany is a lovely rich colour and wonderful grains have been used as can be seen in the photographs. The chest is then raised on lovely splayed feet. DIMENSIONS: The approximate MAXIMUM dimensions are: - 39 inches (99 cm) wide across feet. - 19.5 inches (49.5 cm) deep across feet. - 37 inches (94 cm) high As can be seen from the above dimensions this chest of drawers is of lovely proportions. AGE: The chest is circa 1820.
