Description

A exceptional carved mahogany Victorian partners / estate desk from Morton Hall. A superbly carved and moulded extremely rare quality inverted breakfront mahogany partners/estate desk, with two side drawers either side. The front with fitted cupboards with arched carved doors and fitted interior. One single central drawer. Carved canted concave'd corner columns of flowing floral carving inside and out. The rear has two banks of drawers with upper wider central drawer. Inverted breakfront top with canted concave'd outer corners. The gilt bordered green leather insets are in three separate sections and original to the desk. This desk has carved mouldings surrounding this exceptional fine desk with bordered panel pedestal sides inside and out. Ornate brass drop loop handles. Raised on wheel casters. New leather inset supplied if required. Although this original skiver has some fading to the working areas, it is in perfect character with the desk, we decided to leave as is presently, original to the desk. Any further enquiries. please contact Andrew. 07771676321 Viewing available at our farm warehouse in Clackmannan Scotland. One of the best desks we have seen in 50 years o...
