Description

An early c.17th table with later early c.18th top. This oak small gateleg dropleaf table has an oval shaped solid oak top, supported by a base of bobbin and ring turned supports, grooved oblong profile gatelegs and stretchers, and raised on bun feet. Ideal as small dining or breakfast table, though equally suited as side table or occasional table. A charming early table, full of character, in good condition and very well presented. Sensitive cleaned, waxed and now very much ready for use. Dimensions: This table measures approximately 77 cm (30.25") tall, 107.5 cm (42.25") wide leaves up, and 34 cm (13.5") wide leaves down, 88 cm (34.75") deep. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This table is in good original condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally sound and sturdy. The base is early c.17th and the top early c.18th. The top has marks and blemishes, including minor natural aged splits. The base is very good, and has appropriate aged wear. The feet are straight through and original. Some very minor historic extinct old worm holes. Now fully treated, as a matter of precaution, though do not affect the sturdiness ...
