Description

A mid 19th C. Pine Housekeepers Cupboard of substantial proportion. It is in untouched original conditional and has the original scumble paint finish as was popular at the time. It boasts large cupboards to the top section and 8 drawers to the base, one of them being a very large drawer disguised as 2 drawers. It really is a wonderful example of country house furniture of the time and just perfect for a free standing kitchen. It is very heavy and in good solid order with signs of wear and tear as would be expected from age and use. Width 230 cm Depth 57 cm Height 225 cm
