Description

Fine quality Victorian burr walnut compactum wardrobe by H Ogden of Manchester. The wardrobe is constructed of the highest quality. The well-known cabinet makers have used the finest burr walnut available of the period. The wardrobe is well fitted with slide-out trays and drawers to the single left-hand section, with a double hanging section with a single rail and ornate brass hooks. Below this are two deep drawers to the base. The wardrobe comes in three main parts plus the cornice and central mirror-pin hinged door. It is in very good clean condition with a fantastic grain and colour. A little more on the history of H Ogden of Manchester below.
