Description

A very fine pair of mid 17thc music playing putti (a putti is a figure in a work of art / carvings often depicted as a male child, usually winged) oak caryatids....this fine pair would have probably come from an impressive piece of furniture used as decoration....they are playing what looks like an early form of bagpipe and an early lyre (small stringed instrument)....excellent colour and condition. Flemish. C1660-80.
