Description

Hopefully the offer of the month. These seem to sell for £65 to £85 each as a general rule. Here we are able to offer 4. The one on the left is particularly detailed. The handle has an interesting repair, maybe stood on by a cow and as things were repaired 100 plus years ago not just replaced, it has been repaired. Two other have wooden handles one with signs of some worm but we have sat this in killer so they would be seriously robust if making it through that. The four are £100 the lot. Largest round is 24cms, tallest is 55cms. Could look good in a restaurant or maybe a dairy selling farm produce, or they could sit in a tea room. Perhaps best of all in your kitchen. Give us a call to discuss. 01565 874075
