Description

This is a small antique corner cabinet. An English, oak wall cupboard, dating to the William & Mary period and later, circa 1690. Appealing corner cupboard with fascinating age and finish. Displays a desirable aged patina throughout. Select oak stocks show fine grain interest and deep chestnut hues. Would make for a delightful addition to any traditional space. Wide crown moulding above an engraved lobe border, repeated across the fascia. Quality antique brass to the hinges and escutcheon presents warm golden hues. Field panel door dressed with a shaped lock escutcheon — in working order, key present. The door adorned with the date of 1686, above a corn husk motif. Lower panel hosts a charming sunflower scene. Opens to reveal a trio of shelves, generously spaced for smaller items. Dressed to the rear with a pair of small brass mounting loops. This is a distinctive small antique corner cabinet, presenting a fascinating example with charming period taste. Suitable for wall mounting or floor standing within the corner of a room. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home. Dimensions: Max Width: 49.5cm (19.5") Max Depth: 25cm (9.75") Max Height: 73cm (28.75") ...
