Description

A charming small two tiered Japanese carved Arts & Crafts table for Liberty & Co circa 1900. With a hexagonal shaped top with leaf motif carving to both the top and bottom and standing on three carved legs. In good condition with good colour and patina, this pretty table would make a wonderful lamp table or plant stand. These tables were hand carved in Japan for Liberty & Co during the early 1900's, they were commissioned by Liberty as part of their more exotic range of antique furniture when there was fashion for everything Japanese. Made in numbered sections for easy packing and transportation, and assembled at the "Eastern Bazaar" in their Regent Street headquarters in London. Construction/Wood: Solid wood Condition Report: Good condition. Wear and marks commensurate with age. Dimensions: Height: 70cm Width: 45cm Depth: 51cm
