Description

Louis BONAMICI (1878-1966) Provence School Post Impressionist 1957 A delightful post Impressionist painting of a bouquet of spring flowers, signed and dated 1957. Louis Jean Alfred Bonamici was born on the Italian Riviera in 1878. He painted mainly in Provence, scenes of harbours, fishing ports and ponds all bathed in bright sunlight. His technique was impressionistic using heavy impasto applied with a palette knife. He exhibited extensively between 1907 and 1935 in Paris and the southern cities of France. In 1923 he travelled to America and captured views of California, exhibiting in San Francisco, Los Angeles and New York. He was a popular painter and exhibited through a network of galleries. Condition In excellent original bright condition. Presented in its original mid century period frame. Size 37cm x 46cm (56cm x 65cm framed) 14.5 x 18 inches (22 x 25.5 inches framed)
