Description

A lovely example of a rosewood framed armchair dating from the mid 19th Century. It is excellent quality with a beautifully carved frame with scrolling arms and turned legs. It is a well proportioned chair with a deep comfortable seat and buttoned back. It is upholstered in a good quality green fabric that compliments the chair. The chair is in very good condition and is strong and sturdy. The rosewood has a beautiful rich colour and bold grain which has been nicely polished. There are signs of age and use, some small marks and knocks around the legs and a small chip (see photo) but no major damages. There are a few minor marks on the upholstery but nothing detrimental and it displays beautifully. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
