Description

This is an impressive English antique Edwardian Sheraton Revival flame mahogany inlaid wardrobe, late 19th century in date. It has a moulded cornice with a crossbanded frieze over two panel doors with oval quarter veneered panels decorated with boxwood ebonised and chequer strung lines. The wardrobe is raised on bracket feet. The interior is fitted with a brass hanging rail, and a brass rail for ties and belts on each door. Complete with its original working lock and key. Provenance: East Down Manor - see photo The Collection of the Late Simon Scott-Brown. It is a truly beautiful wardrobe which is also very spacious. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 213 cm x Width 128 cm x Depth 53 cm. Dimensions in inches: Height 7 feet x Width 4 foot, 2 inches x Depth 1 foot, 9 inches. FACTS ABOUT EAST DOWN MANOR Although the actual date of origin is not known, what is certain is that part of the existing building was built in 1577. A date stone can be found on the front elevation, albeit this was not its original location as the present front was...
