Description

A handsome 19th century mahogany miniature chest of drawers, standing on bun feet with brass knob handles, and cross-banding to the top. Possibly made as an apprentice piece, this is a charming little item that would be ideal for storing sewing or craft supplies. Condition: There are a couple of splits to the veneer on one side, and a few chips and losses to the sides and front, mainly on the corners, but overall this is in good condition. The drawers have green patterned paper liners which we have not attempted to remove. Free UK delivery - the item will be sent using a tracked and signed for service. If you would like a quote for delivery elsewhere please get in touch.
