Description

Over Sized Irish 19th Century Antique Armchair by N.A.Campbell & Co A high quality ample and comfortable Irish 19th century traditionally upholstered armchair by N.A.Campbell & Co who made furniture at Fountain Street, Belfast, Ireland between 1874-1881. They fitted out cruise liners including the Britannic S.S. for the White Star Line. This large Irish antique armchair is very deep seated with all the original innards intact and upholstered in an old fabric that could be kept. The front legs are well turned in solid walnut whilst the back legs are splayed and have the makers stamped to one of them. All original castors are present. Very well made and in super condition. Dimensions Height: 100cm (39.68") Width: 75cm (29.76") Depth: 105cm (41.67")
