Description

This is an antique textile printing block. An English, carved copper on hardwood printer's stamp in Art Nouveau taste, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Delightfully rare and unusual, with a fascinating copper pattern. Displays a desirable aged patina - former inhabitants professionally treated. Hardwood form replete with carved hand grips to the reverse. Marked to the sides with the pattern number of 1233. Carved copper, repeating pattern presents exceptional skill. Amber hues adorn the copper, contrasting against the chestnut coloured base. Attractive Art Nouveau feather pattern redolent of Liberty and other prominent fabric specialists. Good weight in the hand of 2.03kg (4.475 lb). This is a fascinating antique textile printing block, with a striking Art Nouveau pattern. Would offer superb display appeal in a retail space or stylish home. Delivered ready to display.
