Description

A fine quality pair of Edwardian silver salts. Shallow and circular in design, each salt dish has three elegantly curving legs with a paw foot. The rims are gently scalloped with a band of deeply engraved lines around the inner edge to create a pattern that catches the light. The interiors have a lovely warm gilt finish. Super salts in very good antique condition, these would make a stylish addition to any table. Hallmarked to each base with clear marks for Birmingham 1904 and silversmith William Aitken. Measurements: Diameter: 5.4 cm Height: 2.8 cm Weight: 94g All measurements are approximate.
