Description

A 19th Century rather lovely jewellery box made from coromandel with gilt metal decoration. In the centre of the lid is a hand painted porcelain plaque in the Sèvres style. The interior is covered in a red fabric which is clean and has some wear commensurate with age, although it's quite acceptable. Allover in good condition with no losses. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland and can calculate the cost for international delivery. Payment by banktransfer, PayPal or card via telephone.
