Description

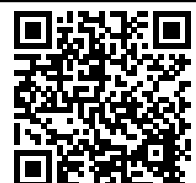

An Elegant Pair of 18th Century Italian Kingwood and Walnut Veneered Console Tables. This elegant pair of Italian console tables from the 18th century have distinctive and exquisite kingwood veneers and delicate inlay throughout. The tops are quarter veneered kingwood with chequered inlay and walnut crossbanding and the panelled apron is adorned with the same banding, with the addition of mock fluted blocks to the corners. Raised on slender tapering legs, with foliate motifs in their upper section. Elegant and refined with a beautiful patina.
