Description

Super Victorian burr walnut breakfront bookcase or side cabinet, circa 1850, of fine quality with a double moulded top above a frieze with carved roundels and fielded panels to the pilasters and a central cupboard door with arabesque pattern blind fretwork panel, all standing on a moulded plinth base. Three adjustable shelves to each section and 'Clarke & Timmins, Birmingham Secure Patent' lock. Outstanding colour and quality suggestive of a top maker such as Holland & Sons or Gillows, in very good condition, sympathetically restored and ready to place at home.
