Description

Furnish your home with timeless elegance – introducing our antique Regency rosewood waterfall bookcase, made in England circa 1820. Crafted with exquisite attention to detail, this piece seamlessly blends curving acanthus leaves with a carved shield shaped central cartouche and the rich tones of rosewood. The cascading waterfall effect created by carved C and S-scrolls not only adds a touch of sophistication not seen in many other bookcases of this type, but also helps showcase your literary and other treasures. Two drawers to the base provide convenient storage, and all supported by finely turned foliate carved feet. A statement of both style and substance, this bookcase is more than furniture; it's a testament to refined taste. The overall dimensions at the largest points are approximately Width - 52in (132cm) Depth - 11.5in (29cm) Height - 61in (155cm) Please feel free to request more photos as we are limited in the number we can upload.
