Description

Antique silver half hunter pocket watch, military link. The watch has a good quality stem-winding movement, Breguet hairspring and screw set jewels, which is working nicely. The movement is protected by an inner cover which has a beautifully engraved inscription which reads, 'Cr Serg Edwin Brown from Major Lt F Thompson, in memory of our soldiering days in "The Kings", 1st March 1889'. The watch measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is 935 silver and there are Continental hallmarks inside the three covers. The case is in lovely condition. The front has a small central lens surrounded by blue enamel filled Roman numerals. The winding crown pushes in to release the front cover... note, it does not spring open. Inside, there is an acrylic lens which has light marking visible through a magnifying loupe. Some reflection showing in the photos. The dial is in lovely condition with pin-set blued steel hands, a subsidiary seconds dial and outer minute markers. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
