Description

A Pair of Large French Baroque Brass Andirons or Chenets This is a Large pair of French Brass Andirons, the ultimate in Chateau Chic They are very decorative and made in two tone brass, the original log grate is not present and a new one would be required if you need to burn a fire but this is not required to enjoy the Chenets which are connected with a full length twisted brass pole The Chenets are clean but we have not had them burnished in order to keep the original patina intact The Chenets each 18" high, 17" deep and the overall width is adjustable on the bar approximately 40" wide.
