Description

For your consideration is this rare and highly stylised Art Deco circular modernist occasional table dating to the 1930's and English in origin. Three supporting chrome legs which have dulled over time but still looks spectacular. This is a superbly stylish original piece that won't disappoint. As you can see from the pictures this piece is in a very desirable heavily figured book paged Walnut veneers to the top with a beautiful soft tone colouring. In excellent condition having been newly and professionally restored by our professional restorers. A great piece that will easily integrate any room, can be used as a coffee table or centre table, choice is endless. FREE UK mainland delivery
